

For more than 50 years, Life Treatment Centers has helped people in our community take on some of life's hardest work: recovery from substance use disorders. Recovery requires tremendous courage, persistence and support, but we also believe that conversations about recovery can make room for connection and even laughter.

With that spirit in mind, we invite you to join us for Stand Up for Recovery on February 25, 2027, an evening designed to bring our community together over great food, good company and plenty of laughs.

The reality is that substance use disorder and recovery touch nearly every family and neighborhood in our community in some way. Sometimes the struggle is visible, while other times families navigate it quietly behind closed doors. It may affect a friend, coworker, neighbor or someone we love. Whatever the circumstances, this is not an issue that belongs to someone else. It affects our entire community, and we believe recovery deserves the support of our entire community.

Stand Up for Recovery is an opportunity to show that support while enjoying a memorable evening at Four Winds Casino Resort in South Bend. The event will feature dinner and a performance by nationally touring comedian Sam Miller, whose comedy draws from his own experiences with addiction, long-term recovery, family and the humor he has found throughout his journey.

We hope you will consider sponsoring and attending this special evening. Your support will help Life Treatment Centers continue providing treatment, recovery housing, counseling, case management and ongoing support for people working toward healthier, more stable lives.

A NIGHT WORTH STANDING UP FOR

Forget the typical fundraising gala. Stand Up for Recovery is designed to be the kind of night people actually look forward to. Time with friends, a great dinner, nationally touring comedian Sam Miller, plenty of laughs, and a room full of people coming together for something that matters. Addiction touches every part of our community... our families, friends, workplaces and neighborhoods. Sometimes we see the struggle. Often, we don't. But behind every person working toward recovery are people hoping, helping and believing in what comes next.

By sponsoring Stand Up for Recovery, you're doing more than putting your name on an event. You're standing behind the courage it takes to choose recovery and helping Life Treatment Centers make treatment, support and a fresh start possible.

FEATURING STAND UP COMEDIAN SAM MILLER

Nationally touring comedian Sam Miller brings big laughs and a story that fits this night perfectly. Drawing from parenthood, addiction and his own long-term recovery, Sam finds humor in the messy, meaningful parts of life. His Round Trip album and special hit No. 1 on the iTunes Comedy Charts, and he's a recurring guest on The Bob & Tom Show. Expect a funny, candid and unforgettable performance celebrating recovery, resilience and joy.
